
LLEWELLYN, Katherine Jillian Skye, Poet

PRG 879
Series List

Katherine Jillian Skye Llewellyn, who writes under the name Kate Llewellyn, was born at Tumby Bay in 1940 and educated at country schools. As a mature age student she took a degree in History and Classical Studies at the University of Adelaide. She was co-editor with Susan Hampton of The Penguin Book of Australian Women Poets and is represented in the major Australian poetry anthologies herself. She has published books of her poetry and her work has been published also in various journals. She resides in the Blue Mountains of New South Wales. The papers comprising Private Record Group 879 were donated to the Mortlock Library by Dr. Robert Johnson in 1989.

Sources:

Llewellyn, Kate, The Waterlily, a Blue Mountains Journal. Hawthorn : Hudson Publishing, 1987.

Restriction:

No access is allowed to letters written by Kate Llewellyn, series 1, prior to 2030 A.D. Other series are unrestricted subject to normal copyright.

R.N.A., June 1989

- | | |
|--|----------|
| Letters sent to Robert Johnson.
ca.1976-c.1984. 10cm. Manuscript and typescript.
[RESTRICTED. No access prior to 2030 A.D.]. | 1 |
| Manuscripts of poetry and prose.
ca.1970-88. 5cm. Typescript and typescript carbon. | 2 |
| Notes for talks.
c.1982. 3 items. Typescript and electrostatic copies.
[Comprises report on Women's Writers Week, notes on talk on women writers and ambition and text of talk titled Why Didn't I Bloom in the Spring]. | 3 |