Series 16 : Burial ground correspondence and map

1. 13 July 1886 Joseph Coleman to Henry Brookes (Superintendent of Cemeteries) re the Society being unwilling to return to the General Cemetery any portion of the Friends' Burial Ground until the intention of the Government regarding the future of the West Terrace Cemetery is made known.
2. 13 July 1886 Joseph Coleman to Commissioner of Crown Lands, asking whether, in the event of the General Cemetery at West Terrace being closed, the Friends' Burial Ground will be closed also.
3. 29 July 1886 Crown Lands and Immigration Office to Joseph Coleman, stating that the West Terrace Cemetery will not be closed for "at least twelve months", and that the question of the Society of Friends being allowed to continue burying in the enclosed portion of their burial ground will be decided when the General Cemetery is closed.
4. 31 July 1886 Henry Brookes to Joseph Coleman. Further correspondence re the Society giving up portion of its burial ground to the General Cemetery.
5. 29 Oct 1886 Joseph Coleman to Henry Brookes notifying the Society's willingness to return a portion of its burial ground to the General Cemetery, with the proviso that the space of one chain should be left vacant between the Society's western fence and the portion resumed.

6. 5 Nov 1886 Frederick Coleman to Joseph Coleman. Re William Sander's visit to the Cemetery and his opinion that it would be best to fall in with Brookes' proposal that a space of 20 feet should be substituted for the one chain proposed by the Society (in 5 above).
7. 29 Nov 1886 Joseph Coleman to H. Brookes stating his opinion that the Society may be prepared to reduce its claim for a strip one chain wide to a strip measuring 24 feet beyond the western fence, and suggesting that the unfenced part of the Friends' Burial ground (to the north) could possibly be used as a General Cemetery.
8. 7 Jan 1887 Joseph Coleman to Henry Brookes, officially notifying the Society's willingness to make available to the General Cemetery part of the Friends' Burial Ground, providing that the strip mentioned in 7 (above) -measuring 24 feet - is retained for the use of the Society.
9. 21 Jan. 1887 Joseph Coleman to H. Brookes, asking whether the trustees of the Friends' Burial Ground are privileged to grant leases of portions of the burial ground to individual members of the Society, and seeking clarification of the rules governing leases.
10. 24 Jan 1887 Henry Brookes to Joseph Coleman, replying to 9 (above) concerning leases of burial plots within the Friends' Burial Ground. Also declining to take advantage of the Society's offer to relinquish land to the General Cemetery, unless the whole of the land from the Society's western fence is given up.
11. 21 Feb 1887 Joseph Coleman to Henry Brookes notifying that the Society is not prepared to give up the strip of land (measuring about 24 feet x 80 feet) between its present western fence and the Roman Catholic Cemetery, and suggesting that the unused portion of the Friends' Burial Ground (planted with trees by the Adelaide City Council) could possibly be used as a Public Cemetery.
- 12a 26 Sep. 1904 Superintendent of Public Buildings (per Acting Superintendent, Cemeteries) to Messrs. Saunders and Ashby: letter enclosing an amended plan showing the blocks of land exchanged by the South Australian Government and the Society of Friends at the West Terrace Cemetery.

12b 27 Sep 1904

Plan as described above, with signatures of Mr. Owen Smyth (Superintendent of Public Buildings) and the following members of the Society of Friends: Ernest Saunders, Edwin Ashby, F.A.Saunders, Francis E. Storr and Thomas B. Robson (Clerk of the Two Months Meeting).
